New York, New York –

ETHIOPIAN SOCIAL ASSISTANCE COMMITTEE will host a family day and cultural day for those adoptive families who would like to learn more about Ethiopian history and culture. ESAC will hold an event on Saturday, October 12th, 2013, at 310 E. 42nd Street in New York City.

The interest for learning more about Ethiopia's culture, language, and history is growing and we are asking you to join us in creating awareness for adoptive families, Ethiopian and non-Ethiopians to connect with their roots or interests.

ESAC provides a bridge for adoptive families to connect with the Ethiopian community. ESAC gives Amharic classes in the New York area for all interested individuals, from adopted Ethiopian children to their parents, to researchers and students. All who are interested in learning Ethiopian language and history are welcome. ESAC is also planning to provide cooking, dancing class and traveling tour to Ethiopia.

During this October event, Ethiopian music, food and beverages will be provided including traditional Ethiopian coffee ceremony. Many difficult to find books and art will be available for sale.
